Recommend voting no on Measure V.

A well-intentioned idea that will do more harm than good.

There are lots of ways to see the forest.

But we still find plenty of room to agree.

Historically speaking, Mendocino logging companies had a certain attitude.

Call it, “my way or the haul way.”

Well, the Mendocino Redwood Company was founded to follow a different road.

A determination to be good neighbors, as well as good stewards of the land.

Being open to discussion and dialogue about what we do and why.

And that includes how we’re restoring balance to the wood-producing conifer forest.

Now, with Measure V on the ballot that conversation is more important than ever. Because we believe that Measure V is a well-intentioned, but misguided ballot measure.

One that won’t just change local woodland managementbut reverse our progress.

In the coming weeks we plan to explain our thinking. And then, we hope to hear from you. After all, we have some 440,000 acres now being sustainably managed.

Surely, in all that space, we can find room to agree.
